

Changes to Medicaid are coming

Stay connected to understand how upcoming changes to Medi-Cal may affect you and keep your Medi-Cal coverage.

Don't risk a gap in coverage! Follow these steps:

Make sure your state's Medicaid agency has your current contact information. They will tell you if you have to do something new to keep your coverage.

Check your mail for an important status letter from the state. It will include your next steps and any forms you need to fill out.

Complete and return any forms you receive right away.

If you lose or are denied Medi-Cal coverage, you can apply for affordable coverage at Healthcare.gov or at <https://www.coveredca.com>. You must apply within 60 days of losing coverage.
